

Susan Brattberg, MBA

LinkedIn Profile: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/susan-brattberg-40a3b711/>

Susan Brattberg is an advocate for life-long-learning and is passionate about education. She is co-owner of Edmonton based businesses Digital School Technical Design College and Global eTraining - a global online training company servicing learners in 154 countries. Susan is a member of the board of directors of Canada's (Building Information Modelling) BIM Council, CanBIM and the Hunter Centre for Entrepreneurship and Innovation. Susan is an Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year and Alberta Women Entrepreneurs Finalist, Sizzling Top 20 Under 30 Award winner for Edmontonian's News Magazine and Business in Calgary Award winner. With a decade of expertise in implementing innovative training programs for organizations of all sizes and industries, she is a trusted source of training advice by top executives at major global corporations, education institutions, and government agencies.

Autodesk University, BIM Show Live, ENR FutureTech and BIM Forum . She works closely with clients on creating and delivering customized training programs, administering awareness-raising sessions for key staff members and ensuring that courses run smoothly and effectively. Susan holds an Executive MBA from the Alberta/Haskayne EMBA Program and a BA in Management and Sociology with a specialization in Organizational Dynamics.